

WHO WE ARE:

Honor Flight Network is a non-profit organization created solely to honor America's veterans for all their sacrifices. We are a 501c3 corporation. Honor Flight of Southern Indiana is the 133rd Honor Flight

Network hub and serves the Indiana counties of Crawford, Daviess, Dubois, Gibson, Knox, Lawrence, Martin, Orange, Perry, Pike, Posey, Spencer, Vanderburgh and Warrick. We transport our heroes to Washington, D.C. to visit and reflect at their memorials. This is made possible with the help of generous donors and volunteers.

OUR MISSION:

Honor Flight of Southern Indiana is dedicated to honoring America's senior veterans for their sacrifices by transporting them to Washington, DC to visit the memorials built in their honor FREE of charge. Top priority is given to our oldest veterans, along with those veterans who may have medical priority needs. Any veteran who has served this great country and has an honorable discharge is eligible for their free Honor Flight. A veteran does not have to serve during conflict or overseas to qualify for his or her honor flight.
